

Local lessons to global implications – pathways to effective forest-related policies

30 November 2018

15:00-15:30 Registration

15:30 Seminar starts

Welcoming words by Georg Winkel and Jo Van Brusselen, EFI

Donor perspective on the need for policy coherence for a stronger role of forests in sustainable development

Dr. Thomas Baldauf, German Federal Ministry of Food, Agriculture and Consumer Protection (BMEL)

Global lessons on FLEGT-REDD-SFM policy coherence from SAFARI case studies

Dr. Yitagesu Tekle Tegegne, EFI

SFM, FLEGT, REDD policy coherence: impacts, synergies and lessons from local to national level, case studies from three continents:

- Case study in Democratic Republic of Congo by Dr. Bruno Verbist, KU Leuven
- Case study in Indonesia, by Ms. Laura Prill, University of Hamburg
- REDD+ MRV, NFI and TLAS integration options in Suriname: lessons from case studies, by Prof Dr Michael Köhl, University of Hamburg

The future of global forest governance – lessons from a Delphi study

Ms. Anna Begemann, EFI

Q&A and Panel discussion: “Local lessons to global implications – pathways to effective forest-related policies”

moderator: Dr. Lukas Giessen, EFI

Dr. Thomas Baldauf, BMEL

Dr. Andrew Wardell, CIFOR

Ms. Indra Van Gisbergen, FERN

Mr. Fabian Schmidt-Pramov, GIZ

Dr. Yitagesu Tekle Tegegne, EFI

Closing remarks and take-home messages

Prof. Georg Winkel, EFI

18:00-19:00 Networking reception (drinks and snacks)

SAFARI is conducted by the European Forest Institute, University of Hamburg and University of Leuven and it is financed by the German Federal Ministry of Food and Agriculture (BMEL).